

COULSDON ART TRAIL

Coulson Art trail celebrates the history of Coulsdon with a series of finials on top of the existing finger posts in the town centre. There are now five finials placed on top of the finger posts in the town centre.

1 Cuthræd : The Saxon Warrior 648AD after whom the town is named after (Cuörædsdun).

Outside Pizza Express

2 Cricket Stumps : The first Cricket Match on Lion Green played between Surrey and East Grinstead 1731.

Opposite the Library

3 Greater Yellow Rattle : A rare wildflower that grows prolific on Farthing Downs and Happy Valley.

Junction of Brighton Road & Lion Green Road

4 Emmeline Pankhurst who spoke at Smitham Paris Hall (now the site of the Comrades Club) on 29th April 1911 on votes for Women. The audience was so big she had to speak three times.

By footpath 52C between the pet shop and the Comrades Club

5 Surrey Iron Railway Croydon to Godstone Extension 1805-1838 Britain's first public Railway.

This ran on the embankment at the rear of Lion Green Road car Park and crossed Chipstead Valley Road on a Bridge

Lion Green car park

The project has been sponsored by East Coulsdon Residents' Association www.eastcoulsdon.co.uk and Friends of Farthing Downs and Happy Valley www.friendsoffarthingdowns.co.uk Oakwood Group, along with generous individuals. With the support of Croydon Council and Marshalls.

The project has been managed by Charles King : Chair East Coulsdon RA, Drawing and art work by Lewis White Coulsdon resident, Manufactured by Flux Metal London www.fluxmetal.co.uk

East Coulsdon Residents' Association
www.eastcoulsdon.co.uk

info@eastcoulsdon.co.uk

COULSDON ART TRAIL

More finals will be added as we raise more funds. If you would like to make a donation. Please contact East Coulsdon Residents' Association on info@eastcoulsdon.co.uk quoting Coulsdon Art Trail