COULSDON ART TRAIL

Coulson Art trail celebrates the amazing and interesting history of Coulsdon with a series of finials on top of the existing finger posts in Coulsdon town centre. There are now ten finials placed on top of the finger posts in the town centre.

James Cooper Highway Man. Tried an Executed Smitham Bottom 1749

Dobles

Cuthræd : The Saxon Warrior 648AD whom the town is named after.

Pizza Express

Red Lion Coaching Inn and bus terminus. Berni Inn and more from 1650 to 2003.

Aldi

Cricket Stumps : First Surrey Cricket Match against East Grinstead on Lion Green 1731.

Advanced Print

1788 Bareknuckle. Boxing Gentleman Jackson & Thomas Futrell watched by the Prince of Wales

The Library

Emmeline Pankhurst spoke at Smitham Parish Hall 29th April 1911

Sew Perfect

Gordon Pirie Athlete held 5 World Records & A 1956 Olympic Silver Medal

Brighton Road Near ATS Tyres

Greater Yellow Rattle Grows prolific on Farthing Downs

Brighton Road Lion Green Rd Bus stop

Roman Snail Brought To Coulsdon as food by the Romans 2,000 years ago

Brighton Road Welcome to Coulsdon sign

Charlie and Hamah Chaplin. Hannah was an in Patient in Cane Hill Hospital 1898 & 1903

Marlplit Lane Roundabout

Irish & Yorkshire Navigators constructed Brighton Line by hand 1840

Community Garden Coulsdon South

Woolly Mammoth found constructing the railway through Cane Hill in 1897

Steps Coulsdon South

Surrey Iron Railway 1805 – 1838 Britain's first public railway

Lion Green Car Park

Logie Baird First TV Transatlantic Broadcast from Coulsdon Feb 1928

Bright Horizons Nursery

Possible future final

The project has been sponsored by East Coulsdon Residents' Association, Coulsdon West Residents' Association and Friends of Farthing Downs and Happy Valley, Coulsdon Businesses along with generous individuals. With the support of Croydon Council. The project has been managed by Charles King : Chair East Coulsdon RA, Drawing and art work by Lewis White Coulsdon resident, Manufactured by Flux Metal London. More finals will be added as we raise more funds. If you would like to make a donation. contact East Coulsdon Residents' Association info@eastcoulsdon.co.uk quoting Coulsdon Art Trail.